DEEP-TODA

That sounds like a wonderful event to celebrate Diwali! Classical Kathak dance is a beautiful art form that has a long and rich history in India. It's great to see students getting the opportunity to learn and perform it.

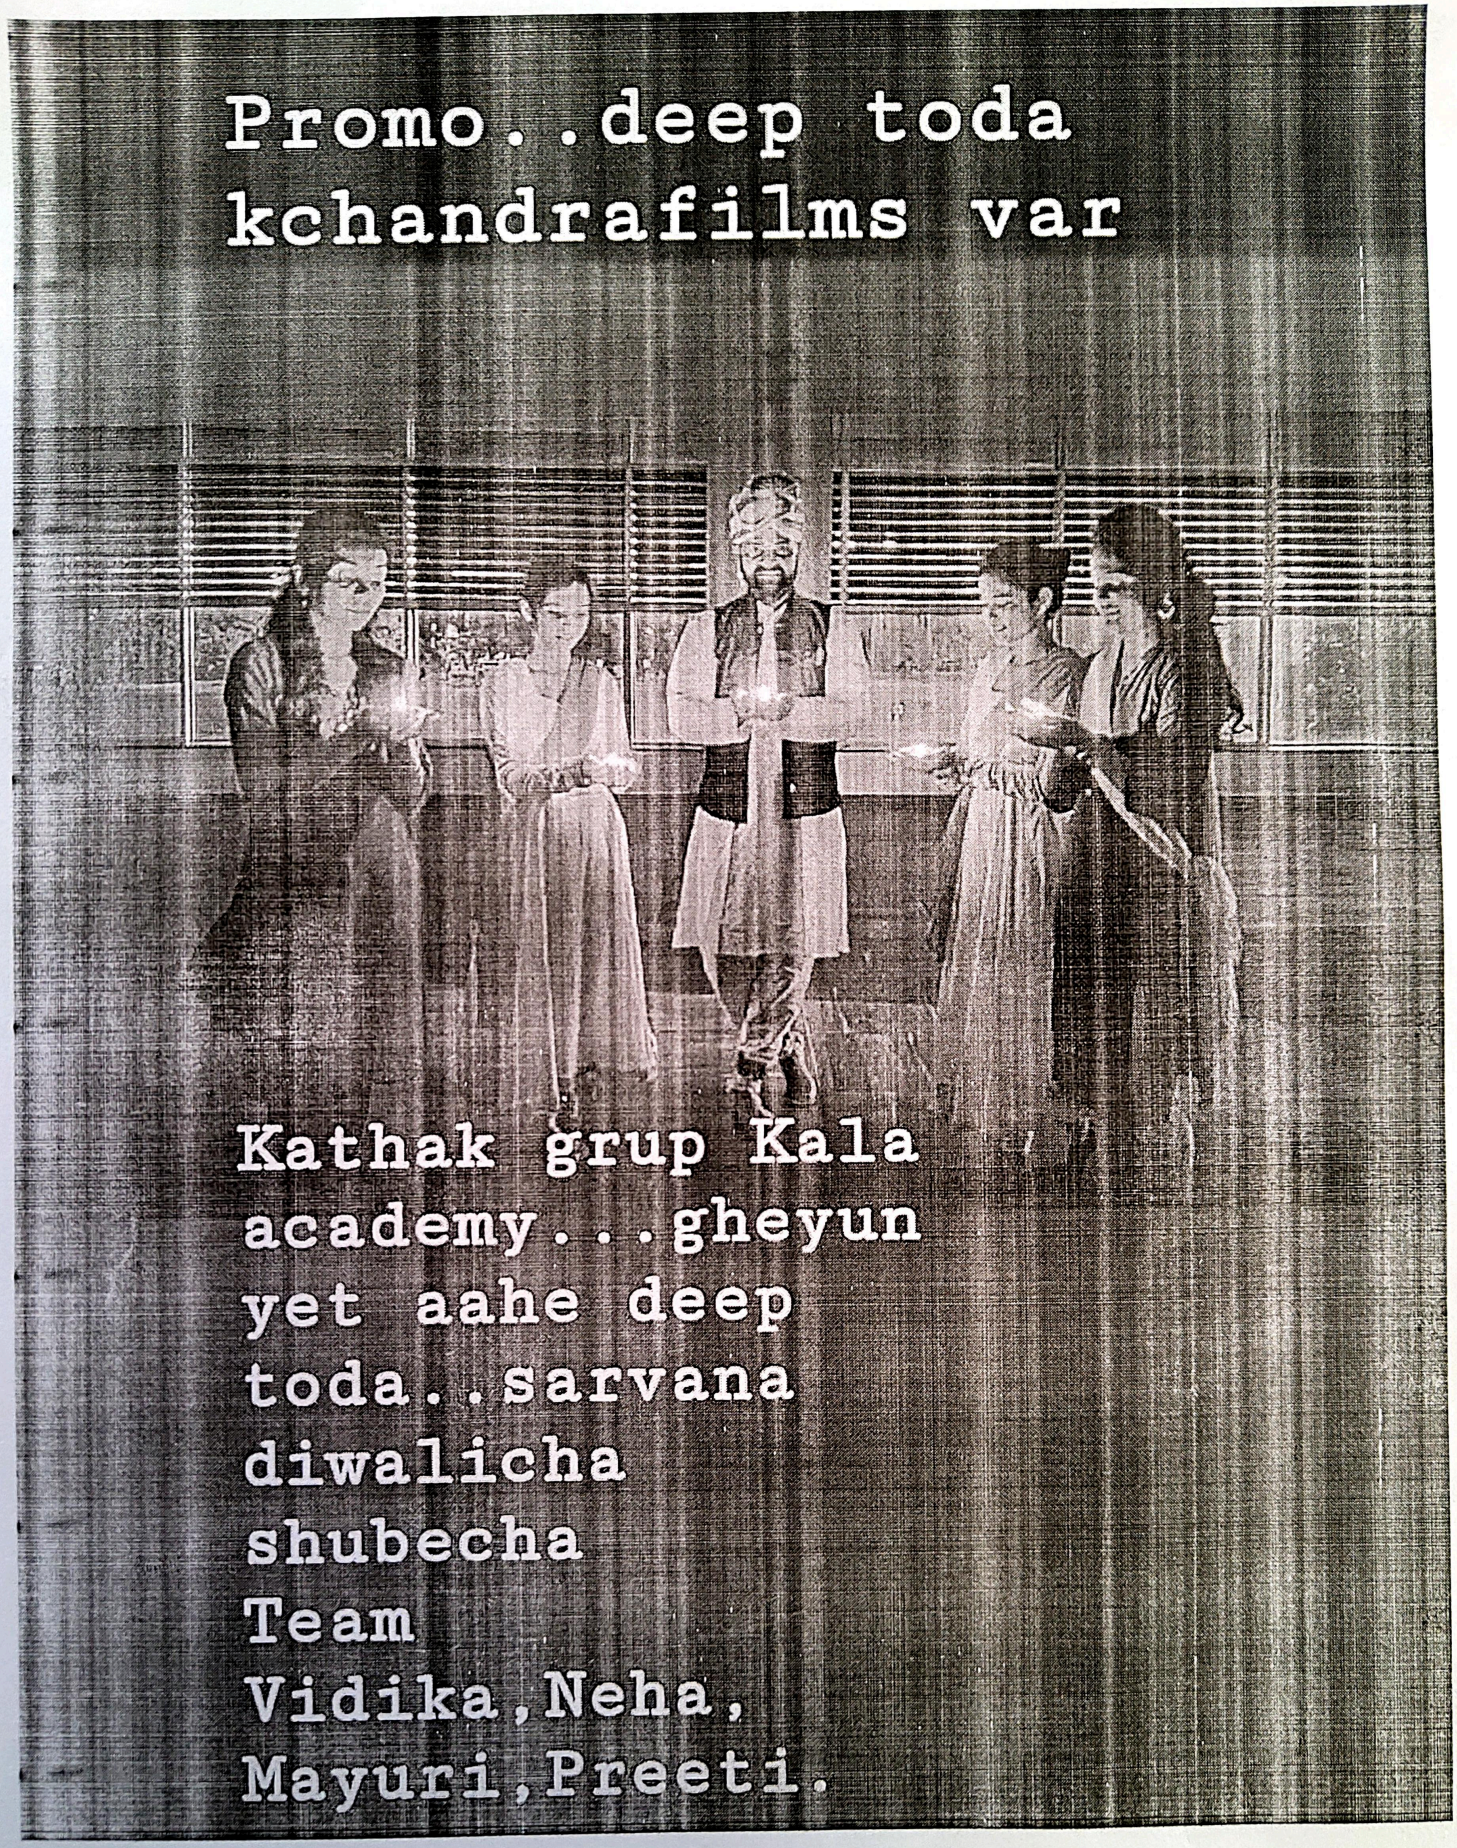

It's also fantastic that Chandrakant Kamble of Annasaheb Dange Kala Academy guided the program. Having an experienced and knowledgeable teacher can make all the difference when it comes to learning an art form like Kathak dance.

And of course, it's always nice to have good wishes from someone like GN Kulkarni sir. It sounds like the students had a great experience and learned a lot from the program.
